inland is all you told me about. The Ball-farm and the room I built about it, some thing better used to tell me have come back to me.
Thank you so much for such an interesting after noon and noon. You built for me such pleas, delicious stories and the rest to the garden.

Very sincerely.

It named an English girl whose name of us ever knew. He never came back to Canada and I was to have had my uncle sent all the family history. Since none of us was heard from Hubert we had no idea where he lived.
And another person who is nearly unburied in family history died his best a couple of years ago to his Hubert. but was unsuccessful.
I felt I should describe it and about. He is always somewhere. I was tremendously

Dear Dr. B. B. Light - 1850-24-5 Mrs. Potts from London - one to 9, 20 Thompson As we drove home I kept 1851-30-1 Samuel Thompson, family, left Mrs. Potts privately thinking about the name Walker 1851-31-3 Mr. Stratton visited Mrs. Potts from 1038 and it suddenly came to me that I had been very stupid and had been wrong when I said which of my Rothwells uncles married a 'Walker' from Cataraqui. It was Mother's eldest brother, Will, who married Adile Walker and they had two sons. One Don Garnett - died very young and the other Hubert - went to England during the first war

Lot 38, Concession 1, Ernesttown Township.

Clark's Reminiscences, 1844.

Lot number 38 was settled by Capt. William Johnson (on half pay). He married in Lower Canada previous to his coming here, to a Widow McCoy, who had three children by the Capt. Robert, her eldest son, left home, and went to New Spain (as it was then called). Samuel and Ann came to the wilderness with their parents. Samuel married Miss Amarilla Hawley, daughter of Jephtha Hawley, Esq. She had a large family. She is dead, but her husband still lives. Ann married Matthew Clark, eldest son of Robert Clark, Esq. She is still living. Mr. Johnson was many yeays Colonel of the Addington Militia, and a Justice of the Peace. His wife died and he married a Widow Murray, from Niagara. They have both been dead many years. He left his property to his first wife's grandson, William Johnson McCoy, who married the daughter of the Colonel's last wife, Miss Elizabeth Murray. He sold his farm to Charles Cheshire, Esq., a retired officer of the Navy (an Englishman). He is dead, and the farm is now occupied by Mr. William Batt, his son-in-law, from Ireland. Thus have the farms passed into the hands of strangers.
